THINKING IN A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

Top University in Asia

Introduction

HKU Crimson Summer Exchange (HKU CSE) is a cross-cultural education programme that brings Western university students (Fellows) and Chinese youth together in a learning environment intended to bridge cultures. HKU CSE is now in its 15th year, since its first annual session in 2004. Supported by an innovative curriculum, the 2018 HKU CSE Fellows will bring their experiences and passions as undergraduate and graduate students at world-renowned universities to lead and mentor students in Hong Kong and Mainland China.

The Fellowship Award

HKU CSE 2018 will award over 15 fellowships to undergraduate or graduate students (or recent graduates) from Harvard, Oxford, Cambridge, Yale, Princeton, MIT and other world-renowned universities. The fellowship award consists of the following:

1. A maximum of HKD$ 12,000 reimbursement of a round trip, economy class, airline ticket from home to Hong Kong
2. Transportation (including airline tickets and ground transportation) between Hong Kong and Mainland China for Mainland session
3. Accommodation at the host university/school
4. Daily allowance of HKD250 per day for meals and other personal expenses

Disclaimer: Information at the time of printing is accurate to the best of our knowledge. HKU CSE organisers reserve the right to change programme information or cancel the programme as circumstances require. In the unlikely event of programme changes/cancellation, the organisers will not be responsible for any planning costs incurred.
